Be Still

SSSAAA Chorus, Soprano & Alto Solos, a cappella Music by Daniel Watson Text from Psalms 46:10, 42:9-10

Note from the Composer

“Be Still” is born out of the soul's longing for peace — stillness. This work seeks to embody an interweaved dialogue between self, the Holy Spirit, and God the Father. With King David's songs as inspiration, the text cycles through varying degrees of stillness while emphatically asserting God's authority and dominion over all things.

The opening A section begins as a quiet and reflective prayer as the voice of the Holy Spirit begins stirring like a mysterious wind. The B section features an unstable additive meter with progressively layered ostinati. While the prayer remains the same, ideas of doubt, anxiousness, and worthlessness cloud the forefront of the mind, spinning and blurring a complete view of God. In this section, the repeated prayer is the only sense of security and clarity to help navigate the clashing rhythmic and melodic sonorities, symbolic of spiritual warfare tugging the mind and body in multiple directions away from God. In the C section, God's voice breaks through, asserts His omnipotence, and shatters these restless thoughts and feelings. The Holy Spirit intercedes, calms, and refocuses the soul before a plaintive meditation from the soloist guides the heart back to contemplative prayer and closes with the threefold voice of God.

In rehearsal and performance, performers are encouraged to consider a primary distraction, struggle, or trigger that is keeping them from being still in God's divine hand. Collectively meditating on these ideas will help open the heart in order to receive the Spirit in full.

Performance Notes

- Apply increased resonance and articulation in lower registers to maintain a clear tonal center.
- Rehearsal A and E should feel floating, in a stream of consciousness prayer.
- At Rehearsal B, lines should be crisp and rhythmically accented through each iteration. Note the breaths. Take time to build to Rehearsal C — don't grow too quickly.
- A spiritual transformation follows God's outburst at Rehearsal C. Performers should allow themselves to be overwhelmed with a sense of peace and calmness. Articulate pitch changes through this section to accentuate the changing harmonies and movement within inner voices.
- Although Rehearsal E is repeated material, consider how the weight and meaning of this section has developed after the journey.

Daniel Watson is a versatile composer, teacher, and musician from Indianapolis, Indiana. Inspired by the beauty of the natural world, Watson's music challenges performers and audiences to heighten their senses through sound. His first choral masterwork, Virtues and Vices, premiered at the University of Indianapolis in 2024, commissioned by Sound Ecologies Inc. In 2023, he won the Indianapolis Symphonic Choir National Christmas Carol Commission Competition with his work “Good News!”. Watson has had the privilege of performing, directing, and premiering compositions at Carnegie Hall, The Kennedy Center, and venues throughout Great Britain, France, Switzerland, Austria, Germany, and the United States. He continues to be commissioned for new works for professional, collegiate, high school, and middle school singers.

Watson has been recognized for his dedication to music education with the Outstanding Future Music Educator of the Year Award (2015) from the Indiana Music Education Association and the National Professional Achievement Award (2014, 2015) from the National Association for Music Education. He is the Director of Choirs at Greenwood Community High School, Associate Faculty of Music at Indiana University Indianapolis, and the owner of Daniel Watson Music LLC (danielscottwatson.com). He maintains an active private music studio (voice, piano, composition) and regularly collaborates in the community through conducting, piano and vocal performance, and composing.

Be Still

Be still, and know that I am God.
Be still, and know I am, “I AM”.
I say, “God, my Rock, why have you forgotten me?
Now the foe taunts me in agony!”
Be still, and know that I am God.
I am God and will be forever more.
I am who I am and will be forever more.
Be still, and know that I am God.

1 slow, prayerful ♩ = 46

The musical score is written for four vocal parts: Trio, S1/S2, S3/A1, and Alto 2/3. It begins with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is 'slow, prayerful' with a quarter note equal to 46 beats. The score is divided into two systems. The first system (measures 1-4) features a Trio part with chords and lyrics 'Still, still, still, still, still, still, still, still'. The S1/S2 part has lyrics 'Be still, be still, be still, be still'. The S3/A1 part has lyrics 'Be still, be still, be still, be still'. The Alto 2/3 part has lyrics 'Be still, be still, be still, be still'. Dynamics include mp, p, and mf, with poco markings. The second system (measures 5-8) continues the vocal lines. The S1/S2 part has a solo section with a triplet and the marking espress. ad lib.. The S3/A1 part has a dolce marking and the lyrics 'Be'. The Alto 2/3 part has lyrics 'be still, still, still, still, still, still, still, still'. A large 'PREVIEW' watermark is overlaid on the score.
